Are children who enrolled in in-home family support programs on track to succeed at school entry? How do we plan to measure this?
Are children who received a developmental screening and referred for services while enrolled in in-home family support programs on track to succeed at school entry? How do we plan to measure this?
Are families less likely to have a confirmed case of child maltreatment because of enrollment in in-home family support programs? How do we plan to measure this?
Are mothers more likely to have a post-partum health care visit because of enrollment in in-home family support programs? How do we plan to measure this?
Are children who enrolled in in-home family support programs more likely to have well-child visits over a longer period? How do we plan to measure this?
Are children referred to SoonerStart receiving an evaluation within 45 days of referral?

Project SHINE
Referrals